Nick Frey, President, Sonoma County Winegrape Commission
Nick became President of the SCWC in September 2006. Their mission is to increase the value of Sonoma County wine grapes and to nurture and protect this agricultural resource for future generations. Previously, Nick was Exec. Director of the Sonoma Grape Growers Assoc, since May 1999.
Beth Jones, President, El Dorado Winery Association
Beth is the new President of the El Dorado Winery Association and has a keen interest in the sustainability movement and in seeing the foothills attain recognition for our quality grapes and wine. Her family owns and operates Lava Cap Winery.
Ron Mansfield, Goldbud Farms
Ron has been growing tree fruit and wine grapes in El Dorado County since 1980. He is well respected for his understanding of local growing conditions that contribute to Goldbud's high fruit quality standards and for his marketing savvy. Ron currently manages 160 acres of grapes, specializing in Rhone varieties.
